

EIGHT JURORS ARE SECURED

SYLVESTER COSGROVE AR-RAIGNED FOR MURDER.

He is to be tried before Judge John Lynch of Luzerne County for causing the death of Daniel McAuliffe—When Court Adjourned for the Day Eight of the Necessary Twelve Jurors Had Been Secured—Cases That Came Up in Quarter Sessions.

Sylvester F. Cosgrove, of New York, a superintendent of the Drummond detective agency of that city, was put on trial before Judge John Lynch, of Luzerne county, in the Superior court room yesterday, charged with the murder of Daniel McAuliffe, of West Scranton. As told in yesterday's Tribune, the death of McAuliffe was due to the firing of shots at Moran's saloon, on Luzerne street, where Cosgrove, Frank Kafcsinski, a special officer, and Frank Kinsey, a motorman, went to arrest men who had made an attack on a street car the night before.

At the time of their arrest Cosgrove and the other two men were allowed to enter the court, believing that the crime did not rise to the dignity of a first degree, it not being that the Commonwealth will press for anything higher than second degree. Assisting District Attorney Lewis are Attorneys George S. Horn and R. J. Murray, and with them at the Commonwealth's table yesterday sat John and Nellie McAuliffe, brother and sister of the dead man.

The defendant sat at the table with his attorneys, Major Everett Warren, Joseph O'Brien, M. J. Martin and C. P. O'Malley. He was neatly and carefully dressed yesterday, and seemed not at all worried about the outcome of the trial.

After Cosgrove was arraigned in the morning, the work of securing a jury was taken up and at adjourning hour eight had been obtained. They are: Richard Bell, farmer, Moscow; Alonza Coons, farmer, North Abington; A. C. Frederick, farmer, Greentown; Jesse Gardner, farmer, Greenfield; Theodore Mitchell, farmer, Jefferson; M. P. Mead, blacksmith, Greenfield; William Rankins, farmer, Greenfield; Stephen Simons, miner, Olyphant. Altogether forty-three jurors were called. Of these, fifteen were challenged by the Commonwealth, eight by the defendant and thirteen for cause.

Quarter Session Court.

Judge John P. Kelly was to have presided in the main court room this week and the murder case was to have been tried before him, but he has not yet fully recovered from his recent illness and resigned his seat in the police court to Judge E. C. Newcomb. The murder trial, as stated above, fell to the lot of Judge Lynch.

John O'Brien, of North Scranton, a familiar police character, was arraigned for burglarizing McNamara's hotel, on West Market street. The police are convinced that O'Brien did the job, but could not prove the charge against him and reluctantly threw up their hands and allowed a verdict of not guilty to be returned. Judge Newcomb, in discharging the accused, told him he had a narrow escape and to be careful to keep out of the criminal courts in the future or he will certainly land in the penitentiary.

E. A. Stanton was the prosecutor in two cases which charged his daughter, Miss Ella Maude Stanton, and Benjamin F. Burdick with unlawful relations. Burdick is a married man, and the girl worked in his family in Scott township. The father does not now desire to prosecute, and a nol pros. was entered in each case upon payment of the costs. Michael Gibson and his wife, Sarah Gibson, of Park Street, pleaded guilty to the charge of cruelty to their child, preferred by Mrs. W. B. Duggan, of the board of charities, and Judge Newcomb suspended sentence.

When court adjourned, a jury went out to decide whether or not John Tuffy, of South Scranton, is guilty of stealing dynamite caps and fuse from the Westinghouse-Church company. He denied the theft and said he found the articles in question on the "Orchard," South Scranton.

Divorce Cases.

Attorney Edward W. Thayer, representing Berlin E. Fish, of this city, filed a libel yesterday which prays that Mr. Fish be granted a divorce from Hattie M. Fish, to whom he was married on June 2, 1895. He alleges that she deserted him July 1, 1900, and that her present residence is unknown to him.

H. F. Trager also applied for a divorce yesterday from Helen Trager. He is represented by attorney C. S. Woodruff. They were married Dec. 21, 1881, but he had to leave her last Saturday for the reason that she was cruel to him and offered such indignities to him as to make his life unendurable.

Court yesterday granted a divorce to Lizzie F. Kinder from Charles H. Kinder, who were married May 30, 1899, at Binghamton. She alleges that her husband drank to excess, beat her, and on at least one occasion put her out of the house in the night-time. She now makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgerald, in this city.

Orphans' Court Matters.

In the Orphans' court yesterday Judge A. A. Vosburg heard evidence in the audit in the estate of Bridget Ryan, deceased, with respect to the exceptions filed to the account of P. J. Horan, trustee. The testimony related to various items of credits for moneys paid by the trustee and his agents which the executor had claimed. The proper charges against the estate. The audit will be concluded on Friday at 9 o'clock a. m. The counsel concerned are: C. R. Pletcher and M. P. Cawley for the accountant, and T. P. Duffy, George S. Horn and W. H. Jessup, Jr., for the executor. The regular session of the Orphans' court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning for the hearing of matters set down for that time.

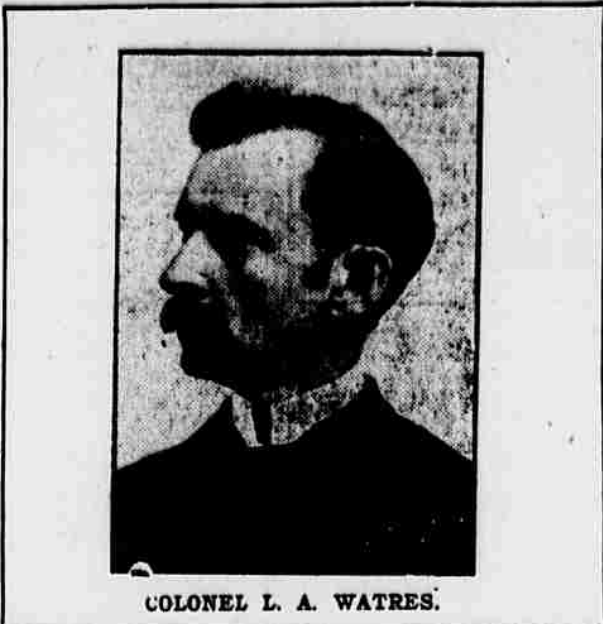

Judge Vosburg also handed down an opinion in the estate of John R. Mahon, deceased, in which it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the executors under the will of John R. Mahon, deceased, file an account within ten days from the date of this decree; and that the costs of this proceeding be paid by the estate.

The White Sale in Full Sail

Why So Many Women Come.

The demand we have, and the dare-to-get-ready for it, leads us to buy so much, to sell for so little---that's what has made this White Sale what it is.

If women didn't know that every piece of muslin and cambric and nainsook underclothes in the sale was spick-and-span and new; that we investigate the factories that make it, and give orders only to the clean ones; that we can sell more, and because we sell more, sell for less than any other store---do you suppose our department would have been crowded as it was yesterday?

A great many makers competed with the hope of getting our orders for this sale. We bought from only five---the five who stood first in quality of work and material. And every piece delivered is compared with the samples which won for them our orders.

There will be a month during which you can buy underclothes for about wholesale cost to us. Some things at certain prices can't last but a few days, but others will take their places. We have prepared to do our biggest and best, and expect you to report everything to us that isn't up to what you know is our standard.

If you want to avoid the throng come before 9 or after 5.

All of the Following at the Muslin Underwear Department

White Sale Handkerchiefs

If we weren't right on the spot among the factories abroad with our orders, we wouldn't have today such beautiful handkerchiefs as these (for women) at 9c. No store could get anything like them in this country.

They are seconds of 15c to 25c handkerchief, but it's only a dropped or thick thread here and there that keeps them from being perfect. Sheer, dainty; some hemstitched, some embroidered. They are the best handkerchiefs we have had for many a day to sell for so little. $1 by the dozen.

A few of those plain white hemstitched handkerchiefs for women, 60c a dozen---but only about enough for today.

12c Dimities and Swisses

Our regular 12 1-2c cottons put out for convenience. Some of the dimities have the borders which all womankind is after, and the swisses are in the little Dresden effects, and dotted.

There seems to be a craze for the little black dots on white grounds, in dimities and lawns. There are plenty of them this morning.

Women's Bathing Suits

Already the exodus has begun. Trunks are being hurried to the trains. People are closing their houses for the summer in dread of the fearful heat which is to be expected before many weeks pass. And every woman who goes to the seashore is taking with her a bathing suit, not because they don't have bathing suits there, but because the variety of choice and price is better here.

The old habit of renting bathing suits is going rapidly out---people have more respect for their skins, and prefer their own suit, even if it is not an expensive one, to one they can hire; and in the end it pays, for a good bathing suit will last two seasons if it is properly cared for.

Brilliantine is of course the best material for bathing suits. We have them as low as $2 and on up to $11. Some very pretty ones are of cream white trimmed in blue.

A Conspicuous Our Linen Store

A bleached table linen for $1 a yard, 2 yards wide, that is the best table linen you can buy anywhere for the money. It is made for us in exclusive and very handsome patterns, though other stores can perhaps buy the same quality in New York from an importer---but he will charge them $1 a yard wholesale.

When our linen man was in the market he bought over 5000 yards of this one special linen. We have had the same kind for several years, and miles and miles of it are in use in the best hotels and families in this section.

White Sale Towels

The 10c huck towel, 17x34 inches, bleached and hemmed, is cheaper than a crash towel---think of it.

Very good bleached huck hand towels, hemmed and bordered; 16x24 inches, $1 a dozen. Good office towels. Fine, big, bleached hemmed huck towels, 21x42 inches, 20c.

Fine all-white hemstitched towels, 20x38 inches, 25c.

Bath Towels

Bleached bath towels, large size, 12 1-2c. Extra large bleached bath towels, fringed or hemmed, 25c. Splendid quality.

WHITE BABY DRESSES

Some of the things you can get at moderate prices to keep little tots cool in the hot days.

The Baby Store will save you lots of worry and, oh, so many stitches.

50c. Cambric dresses, with a yoke of tucks, and finished with a narrow ruffle edged with val lace, 6 months to 3 year sizes. Various other good styles at this price.

75c. Dresses with square yoke, cluster of tucks, skirt with hemstitched hem. Another at this price is a Bishop style with shoulder straps of insertion, edged with narrow lace.

$1.00. Dresses with square and round yokes, some with cluster of tucks and insertion finished with ruffle of embroidery.

$1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50. Dresses in fine materials of cambric, nainsook, etc., beautifully made and in the newest shapes and styles. $2.75. French dresses of Persian lawn, cluster of tucks and insertion, long waist, deep flounce, finished with cluster of tucks, edged with fine embroidery, 2 and 3 year sizes.

$3.00. A style similar to above with a pretty sash. 2 and 3 year sizes.

$3.50. French dress, similar to above only with pointed yoke, deep ruffle at bottom. 2 and 3 year sizes.
